A first impression

Wonderful farmhouse positioned along one of the canals of the Livenza River: a magical place where you can enjoy landscapes, sounds and scents often forgotten, able to regenerate the soul from the stress characteristic of our daily lives.

In fact, the flowing waters of the Livenza, gives a pleasant and constant background music to accompany the silence of the surrounding countryside.

The Farmhouse, perfectly renovated in 2007, consists of a large living area designed for scenic dinners of large companies, overlooking the private park, separate kitchen and living room with central fireplace.
The large garage, paved and equipped with trusses and exposed-beam ceiling, is actually a multi-purpose room additional to the dwelling.
The living area spaces are completed by a full bathroom with shower, and a storage room/technical room with a service axe to the dwelling.

On the upper floor accessible from the beautiful wooden staircase located at the main entrance, the sleeping area equipped with a central sitting room on whose sides are placed 4 bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of which is generously sized with a central bathtub.

On the top attic floor find spaces two additional makeshift rooms for guests, and a large central hall to be used as a fitness room or additional relaxation area.
