A first impression

In the evocative setting of the Venetian countryside stands this extraordinary 16th-century villa, linked to the noble Pisani family, one of the most influential families in the Veneto region, famous for their role in the Serenissima Republic of Venice and for building sumptuous residences.
It is an authentic architectural jewel, embellished by a private oratory and a series of porticoes and rustic cottages that enhance its historic charm. The property, completely restored in 2008 and maintained in excellent condition with a last intervention carried out in July 2024, represents a unique opportunity for those seeking an exclusive residence or an ideal solution for high-level receptive activities.

The villa covers a large area, surrounded by about 3,000 square meters of land that offer privacy and tranquility. The interiors are a masterpiece of elegance and functionality: six bedrooms and six bathrooms ensure comfort and space, while refined rooms such as the billiard room, dining room, living room and gym complete the living experience. The spacious and bright kitchen lends itself perfectly to convivial moments with family or guests.

Among the property's many merits are underfloor heating, an air conditioning system, and a modern 6 kW photovoltaic system, which ensure a high level of energy efficiency. In addition, the villa includes agricultural cottages with the possibility of recovery of about 1,000 cubic meters, perfect for residential conversions or to expand receptive activities.

Outside, the manicured garden and porches provide a peaceful atmosphere and an ideal setting to enjoy the beauty of the surrounding landscape. The consecrated oratory, an element of rare exclusivity, adds an additional touch of sacredness and historical value to the property.
