A first impression

This spacious and modern apartment complex was built to the highest standard of Climate House "B", which means it will also be rated for energy efficiency. An entrance door, gives access to this charming three-room apartment with a living terrace that is located on the second floor with an elevator, the heart of the apartment is definitely the "LIVING" living and dining area, which thanks to its large windows offers excellent natural light. The sleeping area, on the other hand, consists of: two double bedrooms, a windowed master bathroom with shower and sauna and a compartment currently used as a laundry room (possibility to turn it into a second bathroom). The property unit is equipped with a central heating system with radiators that is operated independently with convenient individual control of room temperature, providing a special atmosphere of well-being in all rooms. The offer is completed by a cellar space and a double garage box (EXTRA 60,000 Euro). All accessible by stairs or elevator.

The property features fine finishes.

Construction year 2006.
